Each political party held a conference recently. A conference is where professionals get together to talk about important topics about their work.

Labour, the Conservatives, the Liberal Democrats, the Greens, and Reform UK had conferences.

This document tells you what each one said about social care, health, benefits, jobs, the environment, and migration.

This document doesn't include everything they talked about.

1. Social care

Social care is about help for people who need support with daily life.

Labour said they would create a National Care Service.

This would give some free support for people.

This would partly be paid for by changing how the state pension works.

The Conservatives did not make a new announcement for social care.

The Liberal Democrats said councils need more money to pay for social care.

They said care workers deserve better pay and more breaks.

The Greens did not make a new announcement for social care.

Reform UK did not make a new announcement for social care.

2. Health

Health is about the NHS, doctors, hospitals, and mental health.

Labour said that NHS will be helped by the new National Care Service.

The Conservatives did not make a new announcement for health.

The Liberal Democrats said more needs to be done to help keep people healthy and prevent illness.

Pharmacy

They said there should be more services available through pharmacies.

They said more neighbourhood health services will help more people.

They said money needs to be used better to increase how many GPs there are.

The Greens said they want to help keep people healthy.

They said they want to tackle inequalities that can lead to poor health.

Reform UK said training to be a nurse or doctor should be better.

They said there should be more nurses and doctors from the UK.

3. Benefits

Benefits is about money for people who are out of work, disabled, ill, or on a low income.

Labour said they have removed the two child benefit cap.

This means families can get certain benefits for all of their children.

They said benefits need changing so more people can work.

The Conservatives said they would build a new benefits system that focuses on people working.

The Liberal Democrats said unpaid carers need more help with money.

They said changes should be made so unpaid carers who get the state pension can get more help with money.

The Greens did not make a new announcement for benefits.

Reform UK said it wants to cut money spent on benefits.

4. Jobs

Jobs is about work, wages, training, and employment rights.

Labour said workers need more rights.

They said they have helped with better sick pay and hours.

They said that more young people will get help to start working.

The Conservatives they would help more people get jobs.

They said they would reduce tax young people in work need to pay.

The Liberal Democrats did not make a new announcement for jobs.

The Greens said they would protect workers from extreme temperatures.

Reform UK said they would reduce the tax that working people pay.

5. The environment

The environment is about things like climate change, nature, and pollution.

Labour said they want more energy to be environmentally friendly.

The Conservatives said they want to get rid of the Environment Agency and Natural England who are look after the environment.

They said they would do this so more homes and community services could be built.

They said they would build more nuclear power.

They said they would build a third runway at Heathrow Airport.

The Liberal Democrats did not make a new announcement for the environment.

The Greens said food suppliers should be better for the environment.

Reform UK said it wants to get rid of Net Zero. Net Zero is a goal to reduce pollution and other things that are bad for the environment.

Reform UK says Net Zero is costing too much and is stopping the country making money.

6. Migration

Migration is often talked about where people come from dangerous countries to be safe in the UK. This is called refugee asylum.

Labour said migration needs to be controlled.

They also said people should be able to find safe places to live.

The Conservatives said they want to make it harder for people to come to the UK.

The Liberal Democrats said they want to work harder with other countries in Europe to control migration.

The Greens did not make a new announcement for migration.

Reform UK said they want to make it harder for people to come to the UK.

That is the end of the breakdown of topics from each party.

Each party talked about other things at their conferences.
